

Login

Front Page :: Comment :: Submit :: Jobs :: Polls

SIKHNN

Community

Politics

People

Community

Outreach

Minority Report

Book Review

Multimedia

North America

Europe

India

Editorials

Columns

On My Mind

Kaur Values

Sikh

Rhyme-n-Reason

Op-Eds

Letters

Cartoons

ETC ...

My Account

Logout

Submit

News

News for

PDA

Recommend

Us

400th Shahidi Gurburab

Jun 24, 2006 - 01:25 AM

Community

TARN TARAN, INDIA: - On the quad centenary martyrdom of day of Guru Arjan Dev, hundreds of thousands of devotees came to pay obeisance. The bazaars and streets of this historic city of the Guru were packed with devotees.

Desperately Seeking Kaur

May 15, 2006 - 12:53 AM

Community

San Francisco, California, USA – A student and young professional organization is attempting to collect quantitative data on Sikh women in the United States. The results of this survey would show for the first time the degree of impact of women's issues affecting the US Sikh community.

Click here for survey.

The Economics Of AIDS

May 11, 2006 - 02:39 PM

Community

Fatehgarh Sahib, Punjab, India - Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) Punjab State Council organized a sensitization program for faculty members and students at the Regional Institute of Management & Technology (RIMT) Institute of Engineering and Technology (IET), Mandi Gobindgarh.

Arson Attack Of Wolverhampton Gurdwara

Apr 24, 2006 - 11:19 PM

Community

Bilston, West Midlands, England - Three granthees were led to safety last Wednesday night following an arson attempt on a Gurdwara in Bilston.

BC Sikhs Pick Up Pieces After Arson Tragedy

Apr 21, 2006 - 03:29 PM

Community

Surrey, British Columbia, Canada – On Saturday, April 29, the Sikh community of Prince George, neighboring the city of Williams Lake, will be celebrating Vaisakhi with their annual nagar keertan. Then, on Sunday, April 30th, busses will leave for Williams Lake, where the sanskaar seva (cremation) of Sri Guru Granth Sahib's saroop will be take place according to maryada. The Sri Guru Granth Sahib was severely damaged in an arson attack of Gurdwara Western Singh Sabha on March 26.

Amritsar-Nankana Bus

Mar 29, 2006 - 04:05 PM

Community

Amritsar, Punjab, India - After the paying obeisance at Darbar Sahib last Friday, Indian Prime Minister Manmohan Singh flagged-off the 'Punj-Aab' bus service from Amritsar to the birth place of Guru Nanak, Nankana Sahib, Pakistan. He made a commitment to open more such links with neighboring Pakistan.

Canadian Delegation To Mata Gujri College

Mar 21, 2006 - 02:17 PM

Community

Fatehgarh Sahib, Punjab, India - A delegation of education experts from Canada visited Mata Gujri College, Fatehgarh Sahib, yesterday. The College is affiliated with Punjabi University, Patiala. The delegation was led by Leslie (Skip) Triplett, President of Kwantlen University College, Surry, Toronto. The other member of the delegation was Harj Singh, Professor in the School of Business of Kwantlen University College, accompanied by Baltej Singh, Dean of Resource Mobilization, and Joga Singh, Nodal Officer of the Punjabi University.

Kirtan In The Original Style

Mar 09, 2006 - 03:36 PM

Community

Amritsar, Punjab, India - The Shiromani Gurdwara Parbandhak Committee SGPC revived the pre-Independence tradition of using traditional instruments in performing Kirtan (hymn singing) at Darbar Sahib.

Virsa Sambhal Vishav Sikh Sammelan

Feb 28, 2006 - 03:54 PM

Community

Sirhind, Punjab, India – A new organization called 'Darbar -e-Khalsa' is in the planning stage. Its purpose would be to guide the Sikh community in creating social, religious, political and economic awareness among Sikhs. This announcement came during the 'Virsa Sambhal Vishav Sikh Sammelan' held at Grain Market, Sirhind, under the patronage of Damadami Taksal and Sant Samaj.

Meet Gurdwara President Sardar Jarnail Singh

Feb 02, 2006 - 11:50 AM

Community

Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada - The Maritime Sikh Society, an organization of Sikhs who settled in Nova Scotia, Canada, primarily during the early 1960s, created its own little piece of history when it unanimously elected thirty-three-year-old, Jarnail (Martin) Singh, as its president for 2006.

Darbar Sahib Attracts More Tourists Than Taj Mahal

Jan 27, 2006 - 12:12 AM

Community

Fatehgarh Sahib, Punjab, India - Jagjit Singh, Director of Tourism, Cultural Affairs, Archaeology and Museums, Punjab, said that the Punjab had tremendous potential for tourism because of its rich cultural heritage, reflected in its important historical landmarks.

SGPC President's Agenda: PSGPC, Health And Education

Jan 11, 2006 - 11:29 AM

Community

Fatehgarh Sahib, Punjab, India - Shiromani Gurdwara Parbandhak Committee President Avtar Singh welcomed the appointment of Swaran Singh as president of the Pakistan Sikh Gurdwara Parbandhak Committee (PSGPC) following the resignation of Mastan Singh from the post. Talking to SikhNN at Mata Gujri College, Avtar Singh said that he is hopeful that the new PSGPC president would work in tandem with the SGPC and work for the improvement and restoration of Sikh maryada (Sikh code of conduct) in gurdwaras in Pakistan.

Heavy Rush On Gurpurab

Jan 06, 2006 - 02:01 PM

Community

Fatehgarh Sahib, Punjab, India - Thousands of devotees thronged Gurdwara Fatehgarh Sahib yesterday on the occasion of Gurpurb. The festival was celebrated with traditional gaiety here. Langar was organized in the gurdwara as usual to mark the birth anniversary of tenth Sikh master Guru Gobind Singh.

'Shaheedi Jor Mela' Honors Sahibzaday

Dec 26, 2005 - 01:18 AM

Community

Fatehgarh Sahib, Punjab, India - The three-day annual 'Shaheedi Jor Mela,' held in memory of Guru Gobind Singh's two younger sons, Zorawar Singh and Fateh Singh, who were buried alive in a brick wall here, began with the commencement of an Akhand Path of Guru Granth Sahib at Gurdwara Jyoti Swarup. Lakhs of devotees paid their obeisance at Gurdwara Fatehgarh Sahib and Jyoti Swarup on Saturday.

A Day Of Protest

Dec 19, 2005 - 11:51 AM

Community

London, England - A world day of protest is being planned for January 17, 2006. Sikhs in major cities such as London, Paris, Toronto and New York are aiming to show their opposition to the death penalty and call for the release of all Sikh political prisoners held in jails in India.

Sikh Procession Crosses Border To Nankana Sahib

Nov 30, 2005 - 09:49 AM

Community

Amritsar, Punjab, India - Amidst the chorus of Gurbani and the rallying cry of "Jo Bole So Nihal," the gold palki, carrying the Guru Granth Sahib, led by Panj Piaras crossed the Wagah Joint Check Post at the International Border to enroute to Nankana Sahib, the birth place of the first Sikh Guru, Nanak Dev. This was first time since the Indo-Pak Partition of 1947 that a religious procession entered Pakistan by road.

Mr. Singh International

Nov 28, 2005 - 11:44 PM

Community

Amritsar, Punjab, India - In a tough competition between forty-four finalists for the 'Mr. Singh International' title, Harpreet Singh of Patiala was the winner of the Mr. Singh International Contest 2005 held on Sunday, Nov 20.

Kaur Vs. Damdami Taksal Et Al

Oct 26, 2005 - 11:54 AM

Community

Amritsar, Punjab, India - Rejecting the proposal of Shiromani Gurdwara Prabhandhak Committee (SGPC) to allow Sikh women to participate in the Amrit Sanchar ceremonies and Karseva of carrying the palki (palanquin) from Akal Takht to Darbar Sahib, Damdami Taksal and Gurmat Sidant Parcharak Sant Smaj (GSPSS) alleged that the SGPC is trying to fraction the Sikh community by raising anti-Sikh panth issues.

Sikh Homes And Historic Gurdwara Destroyed By Asian Quake

Oct 21, 2005 - 09:05 AM

Community

week.

Srinagar, India: - About one hundred and seventy Sikh families have lost their homes, and several Gurdwaras, including the historic Parampila Gurdwara, were destroyed by the earthquake. A UNITED SIKHS GHANAIA relief team reported on the situation on their two-day journey to the earthquake hit areas of Indian-administered Kashmir last

New Gurdwara Near DC

Oct 11, 2005 - 11:13 AM

Community

the largest Gurdwara, in structure, in the area.

Rockville, Maryland, USA - Last Sunday, Sikhs of the Washington area thronged the newly built Gurdwara in the outskirts of nation's capital in the city of Rockville, Maryland. Over a thousand Sikh men, women and children joined the inauguration of a white building with high arches and large glass windows. The Guru Gobind Singh Foundation is now

SGGS Translations Recognized

Sep 15, 2005 - 09:12 AM

Community

Amritsar, Punjab, India - SGPC secretary Dilmeg Singh honored the Lalvani Brothers during their visit to Darbar Sahib yesterday. London based Lalvani brothers - Joginder Singh, Kartar Singh and Partap Singh - had translated the Guru Granth Sahib into eight different languages including Sindhi, Marathi, English, Hindi, Gujrati, Punjabi and Bengali.

Surjit Singh, 75, Master Of Sikh Politics

Aug 29, 2005 - 04:20 PM

Community

By Harbans Lal – Surjit Singh is no more, but there are many who continue to live thinking in his way and who continue to carry similar anguish in their heart. May the spirit of Guru Gobind Singh guide our nation and Vaheguru bless our departed friend.

100 Years Of Sikhs In The Pacific Northwest

Aug 23, 2005 - 11:43 PM

Community

Seattle, Washington, USA - The Wing Luke Asian Museum and the Sikh Coalition are collecting the experiences of the Sikh community in the Pacific Northwest to educate the general public about the community's rich faith, history, heritage and values.

Rules And Regulations For Women's Seva

Aug 15, 2005 - 11:14 AM

Community

months.

Amritsar, Punjab, India - In a landmark decision of the Shiromani Gurdwara Parbandak Committee, SGPC's Dharma Parchar Committee and Dharam Salahkar Committee, Sikh women would now be permitted to do Kirtan and Sukhasan seva at Darbar Sahib. Plans are being put in place for such seva to finally take place within a few

Women To Do Kirtan At Darbar Sahib

Aug 11, 2005 - 03:09 PM

Community

Amritsar, Punjab, India - The SGPC formally announced that women will be able to exercise their right to perform Kirtan and Sukhasan ceremony at Darbar Sahib.

Remembering 1984 Operation Bluestar

Jun 09, 2005 - 04:42 PM

Community

Amritsar, Punjab, India - This was a different day for the devotees of Darbar Sahib. Normally devotees listen to holy Gurbani, but slogans of 'Khalistan Zindabad' and 'Amar Saheed Sant Jarnail Singh...' could be heard over the Kirtan in the Complex of Darbar Sahib on 21st anniversary of Operation Bluestar.

SGPC Helps Soldiers Who Deserted Army After Bluestar

Jun 01, 2005 - 02:55 PM

Community

Amritsar, Punjab, India - The Shiromani Gurdwara Prabandhak Committee (SGPC) said that it would "take care" of all Sikh soldiers who deserted the Indian Army after its 1984 attack on Darbar Sahib.

Sikhs Represented In National Day Of Prayer At White House

May 19, 2005 - 12:00 AM

Community

Washington, DC, USA - The event, hosted by President George W. Bush, was attended by SALDEF (Sikh American Legal Defense and Education Fund) Vice Chair Manjit Singh and religious leaders of many different faiths from across the U.S.

Protests Follow Release Of 'Jo Bole So Nihaal'

May 18, 2005 - 10:00 AM

Community

Amritsar, Punjab, India - Hundred of Sikhs gathered outside cinema halls in Punjab to protest the release of Rahul Rawail's film 'Jo Bole So Nihaal' on Friday morning, May 13, 2005.

Turban Rights Highlighted At Sikh Day Parade

May 17, 2005 - 10:40 PM

Community

New York, New York, USA – A sea of Turbans and scarves processed down the streets of Manhattan as 20,000 Sikhs from the tri-state area followed colorful floats in the 18th annual Sikh Day Parade on April 30, 2005.

Building Political Bridges For Nankana Sahib

Apr 06, 2005 - 01:03 AM

Community

Amritsar, Punjab, India - Punjab Chief Minister Captain Amarinder Singh: "Everyday Sikhs offer Ardass and ask for Darshan Didar of Shri Nankana Sahib. Now there is good news for Indian devotees. Pakistani Prime Minister has agreed to make a symbolic beginning by starting an Amritsar- Nankana Sahib bus service."

International Peace March

Apr 01, 2005 - 02:30 PM

Community

Amritsar, Punjab India - The first International Peace March of 30 NRI Sikhs from Canada, USA, England, Middle East and Europe crossed over to India from Pakistan through Wagah Border check post on March 19, 2005. The march, which started from Nankana Sahib in Pakistan, the birthplace of Guru Nanak, on March 17, finished at Anandpur Sahib in India, the birthplace of Khalsa Panth, on March 23.

It Is Officially 'Harimandar Sahib'

Mar 15, 2005 - 10:44 PM

Community

Amritsar, Punjab, India - The Sikhs' most well known gurdwara will henceforth be referred to, not as the popular description of 'Golden Temple' but as 'Harimandar Sahib.'

Relics Given By Gurus To Muslims Come To India

Mar 09, 2005 - 10:25 AM

Community

Amritsar, Punjab, India – Pakistan based Makhdoom Syed Chan Pir Qadri, descendent of Sai Mian Mir who laid the foundation stone of Harimandar Sahib; and Zahoor Ahmed Khan, descendent of Ghani Khan and Nabhi Khan who once saved the life of Guru Gobind Singh, arrived in India last week with a fourteen member delegation to express their disdain that the contribution of their forefathers towards Sikhism remained unacknowledged.

Jack Straw At Darbar Sahib

Feb 22, 2005 - 10:49 PM

Community

Amritsar, Punjab, India - British Foreign Secretary Jack Straw may have been a VIP visitor at Darbar Sahib last week, but he won many hearts when he made a roti with his own hands at the gurdwara's community kitchen.

Irish Sikh Council

Feb 16, 2005 - 10:48 AM

Community

Ireland - Sikhs of Ireland have established the Irish Sikh Council, the first formally constituted body representing the Sikh population of Ireland. Ireland is an active constituent of the European Union and has been in its forefront during its recent EU presidency in 2004.

Pipe Dreams Of Desparate Men

Jan 18, 2005 - 02:09 AM

Community

Tehran, Iran – Sikh youths of Punjab along with other Punjabi youths are continuing to risk their lives for dreams of opportunity abroad as promised by crooked Indian travel agents who send them on a treacherous journey through the Middle East. Most never reach the promised land of Europe. The lucky ones escape with their lives.

Damdami Taksal Splits

Jan 04, 2005 - 03:44 PM

Community

Amritsar, Punjab, India – Infighting continued at high posts of Sikh institutions as the panth watched the apparent split of the Damdami Taksal on Sunday, January 2.

Ganga Saagar

Dec 21, 2004 - 04:07 PM

Community

Amritsar, Punjab, India - The alloy vessel of Gobind Singh, known as 'Ganga Saagar,' was flown to Amritsar from London by Pakistani MP Rai Azizullah Khan whose family had kept the historical artifact in a British bank for safekeeping since Partition in 1947.

President Bush Greet Sikhs On Founder's Birth Anniversary

Nov 30, 2004 - 11:30 PM

Community

Washington DC, USA – President George W. Bush has sent warm greetings to Sikhs across America on the 535th birth anniversary of Guru Nanak, the founder of Sikhism.

North America Remembers '84

Nov 02, 2004 - 12:00 AM

Community

San Jose, California, USA -- Thousands attended candle light vigils in three North American cities - New York, Toronto, San Jose - to commemorate the twentieth anniversary of the Sikh Holocaust of 1984 in India after the assassination of Prime Minister Indira Gandhi.

Jagir Kaur Wins SGPC Presidency

Sep 24, 2004 - 04:16 PM

Community

Amritsar, Punjab, India -- Jagir Kaur was elected president of the Shiromani Gurdwara Parbandhak Committee (SGPC) on Thursday, September 23.

400th Anniversary Celebrated At California State Capital

Sep 22, 2004 - 03:28 PM

Community

Sacramento, California, USA -- The historical building of the state capital of California was the venue for the celebration of the 400th anniversary of the compilation and the installation of the Aadi Granth Sahib.

Sikhs Present Declaration At United Nations

Sep 22, 2004 - 01:30 PM

Community

New York, New York, USA -- Sikh attendees of United Nations Organization NGOs meeting released the 2004 Declaration of Guiding Principles for Civil Society.

White House Invitation Sparks Kirpaan Debate

Sep 08, 2004 - 04:26 PM

Community

Washington, DC, USA -- August 18, 2004 marked the first time the White House organized an event to honor the Sikh community. The occasion was a historical moment for Sikhs in the U.S., but circumstances regarding the event unintentionally sparked a debate within the community about the Kirpaan.

Pictures: Darbar Sahib Celebrations For 400th

Sep 06, 2004 - 12:48 AM

Community

Pictures: Darbar Sahib Prepares For 400th

Aug 26, 2004 - 12:26 PM

Community

Amritsar, Punjab, India -- Indian Prime Minister Manmohan Singh will also participate in the celebration of the 400th anniversary of the installation of the Adi Granth Sahib on September 1, 2004.

The Smithsonian's 'Sikhs: Legacy Of The Punjab'

Aug 12, 2004 - 03:15 AM

Community

Washington DC, USA – It was truly a historic moment – the opening of the exhibit “Sikhs: Legacy of the Punjab” – at the Smithsonian Institution’s Natural History Museum on July 24, 2004. Approximately 13 million people visit the museum annually where the Sikh exhibit is housed. And the first display that draws the visitor’s eye is a magnificent khanda that stands at the entrance.

World's Largest Religious Forum Celebrates Guru Granth Sahib Centennial

Jul 22, 2004 - 01:43 AM

Community

Barcelona, Spain -- A uniquely impressive assembly of spiritual intellectuals and activists celebrated the quad-centennial of the first installation of the Sikh scripture, the Guru Granth Sahib. Against the awe-inspiring background of a sparkling ocean, over a hundred Sikh scholars mingled with 8000 other delegates from 75 countries representing over a hundred spiritual and religious traditions.

The First Khanda Appears On A Headstone At Arlington National Cemetery

Jul 07, 2004 - 03:00 AM

Community

Arlington, Virginia, USA – Uday Singh was the first Sikh to die in battle as a U.S. soldier; and now his headstone displays the first Khanda to appear as an official emblem of belief for government headstones and markers.

Preparing For UNESCO's Inspection Of Darbar Sahib

Jun 28, 2004 - 10:59 PM

Community

Amritsar, Punjab, India -- Anticipating the arrival of a UNESCO team to inspect the Darbar Sahib regarding the proposal sent to it for declaring it a world heritage site, work has begun to analyze the air pollution around the complex to determine if it is effecting its visage.

Foundation Scholarship Donations Increase, PM Singh Sends Well Wishes

Jun 24, 2004 - 12:21 AM

Community

Potomac, Maryland, USA - $63,000 was raised during a major fund raising dinner organized by the Sikh Human Development Foundation (SHDF) to help fund the scholarship program to financially assist meritorious and needy students in Punjab and in other parts of India to improve their access to higher professional education.

Sikh Executives Summit Proposes Panthic Projects

Jun 18, 2004 - 12:15 AM

Community

San Antonio, Texas, USA -- In efforts to address critical issues facing the Sikh community, the Sikh Research Institute hosted its first 'Sikh Executives Summit' on June 9.

Gurdwara GNFA Management Loses Election

Jun 11, 2004 - 02:45 PM

Community

Silver Spring, Maryland, USA -- The results of the court ordered June 6th election at Gurdwara Guru Nanak Foundation of America (GNFA) came in Monday night. Although the sangat is still awaiting official results, preliminary results show that about 1575 votes were cast and one side won a clean sweep. The new Board met on Tuesday.

Blue Star Victims Commemorated At Akal Takht

Jun 09, 2004 - 12:00 PM

Community

Amritsar, Punjab, India -- Jathedar Joginder Singh addressed a gathering from the Akal Takht during the 20th anniversary commemoration of operation Blue Star, when the Indian Army stormed the Golden Temple in 1984.

Vigils To Remember Victims Of 1984 Operation Blue Star

Jun 04, 2004 - 12:26 AM

Community

Sacramento, California, USA -- The Sikh community of the US will be gathering across the country on the evening of Saturday, June 5, 2004 to commemorate the 20th anniversary of the attack by the Indian Army on Darbar Sahib (Golden Temple) and other historical Sikhs places of worship in Punjab, and to remember the thousands of Sikhs killed in the brutal pre-planned army action.

Tragic Accident Claims Three Lives

May 10, 2004 - 04:49 PM

Community

Edmonton, British Columbia, Canada -- A tragic accident claimed three young lives when a minivan carrying eight people flipped off a major highway in western Canada. Parminder Singh and Charnjit Singh, both 27 and youth instructors at the Guru Nanak Academy in Surrey, were killed along with 17-year-old Rena Kaur Friday morning.

Gurdwara Kalghidar Sahib Breaks Ground

Apr 29, 2004 - 12:30 AM

Community

Selma, California, USA -- The ground breaking ceremony for Gurdwara Kalghidar Sahib took place April 25, 2004. The Sangat of Selma, California gathered to celebrate Baisakhi and to lay the foundation stone of the new building.

Smithsonian's 'The Sikh Gallery' To Open July 24

Apr 22, 2004 - 12:20 AM

Community

Silver Spring, Maryland, USA -- Dr. Paul Taylor, who is heading "The Sikh Gallery" at the Smithsonian, announced that the exhibit at the National Museum of Natural History will open on July 24, 2004.

Kirpan Case Dropped

Apr 19, 2004 - 12:23 PM

Community

New York, New York, USA -- The Sikh Coalition announced today that a prosecutor for New York City dropped charges against a Sikh for wearing a kirpan.

World Turban Day

Apr 13, 2004 - 01:15 PM

Community

Amritsar, Punjab, India -- Young Sikhs stand outside the Akal Takht after doing Ardas to mark April 13 as "World Turban Day" - declared by the Shiromani Gurdwara Parbandhak Committee (SGPC).

Mughal Descendant Wants To Atone

Apr 13, 2004 - 11:10 AM

Community

Ludhiana, Punjab, India -- The International Human Rights Organisation (IHRO) is asking for cooperation from the Sikh and Hindu communities to allow the great-grand-daughter-in-law of India's last Mughal emperor, Bahadur Shah Zafar, to atone for the atrocities committed by her ancestors, the Mughal rulers of India.

Massachusetts Senate Commemorates 400th Anniversary

Apr 12, 2004 - 12:00 AM

Community

Boston, Massachusetts, USA -- The Sikh Coalition reports that the Massachusetts Senate has adopted a resolution congratulating the Sikh community of Massachusetts on the 400th anniversary of the installation of Guru Granth Sahib at Darbar Sahib in Amritsar.

Kar Seva Begins At Golden Temple

Apr 07, 2004 - 01:55 PM

Community

Amritsar, Punjab, India -- This Picture was taken from the top floor of the Main Door (Ghanta Ghar Side) on March 25, 2004 at the beginning of the historic Kar Seva to clean the Sarovar of the Golden Temple.

Gurdwara GNFA Ordered Restrained

Apr 06, 2004 - 03:00 PM

Community

activities..."

Rockville, Maryland, USA -- Circuit Court Judge Eric M. Johnson of Montgomery County, Maryland, issued a temporary restraining order on March 31 against the current management of Gurdwara GNFA (Guru Nanak Foundation of America) which will prevent them from interfering with "...[member] registration and trustee-application related

"1984" Print Proceeds For Toronto Sikh Film Foundation

Mar 24, 2004 - 12:20 AM

Community

San Francisco, California, USA -- Artists Amrit and Rabindra Kaur, known as "The Singh Twins," have pledged all proceeds from the sale of their fine art print "1984" to be contributed to the Toronto Sikh Film Foundation.

Orgs Respond To Graffiti

Mar 19, 2004 - 12:00 AM

Community

Fresno, California, USA -- The Sikh Association of Fresno Gurdwara was vandalized with racist graffiti on Saturday, March 13. Two large scrawls drawn on a board in front of the Gurdwara read "Rags Go Home" and "It's Not Your Country."

Picture courtesy Fresno Bee

Pakistan's Corridor Grant

Mar 13, 2004 - 01:46 AM

Community

Ludhiana, India -- The International Human Rights Organisation (IHRO), while welcoming Pakistan's grant of a corridor of two kilometers for the border Sikh shrine, Gurdwara Kartarpur Sahib, near Dera Baba Nanak (Gurdaspur), urged the Government of India to accept the offer as a goodwill gesture for advancing and promoting peace and harmony between the two neighboring countries and their people.

Gurdwara GNFA Angers League Of Women Voters

Feb 06, 2004 - 11:55 PM

Community

Silver Spring, Maryland, USA -- The court case regarding gurdwara Guru Nanak Foundation of America (GNFA) that began back in April 2002 had reached a court-ordered settlement in June 2003. But the settlement broke down towards the end of the voter registration process in December 2003 after an exchange of scathing letters between the GNFA Board of Trustees and the League of Women Voters of Montgomery County which was moderating the voting process.

Front Page

Copyright© SikhNN 2005

[Please distribute SikhNN articles unmodified only, with credit]