

Jump Games unveils its expansion plans for global presence

As a part of the announced expansion plan, Jump Games will set up a business office in London and named Roger Davies as Vice President for Europe branch of the company

Jump Games, a publisher and developer of mobile games, and an independent venture of Reliance Big Entertainment, with its aggressive growth strategy firmly in its hand, unleashed its plans for the European market today.

As a part of the announced expansion plan, Jump Games will set up a business office in London and named Roger Davies as Vice President for Europe branch of the company.

Davis, who comes with an experience 15 years in the field of new media and mobile entertainment, has served for prominent companies like British Telecom, Real Networks Riot Entertainment, and Infospace and his most recent position include the head of business development in Europe for mobile search and advertising provider Medio Systems.

Additionally Jump Games said it will establish new operations in Asia Pacific (Singapore) by early next quarter, bringing itself a step closer to establishing its footprints across the world.

Print

About Us | Advertise | Contact Us | Feedback

Copyright © Telecomtiger 2007-2008 Terms of use

This site is best viewed in Internet Explorer 6.0 and higher versions, at a resolution of 1024 x 768 pixels