FunMobility is bringing the famous Hello Kitty character to the iPhone. We're talking about the wallpaper application here meaning there's no real action involved in the app. Then again, I'm not sure what kind of action goes with Hello Kitty's character?

Anyway, the new application is a result of partnership agreement between FunMobility and SANRIO, which is the creator of the popular character. And since SANRIO also has other characters in its portfolio — like My Melody, Badtz-Maru, Chococat, Deery-Lou, Tuxedo Sam, Little Twin Stars, Cinnamoroll, and Pochacco — these are also included in the app.

rocnacco — these are also included in the app.

The only downside, though, is the price. Where I stand, five bucks (that's $4.99 actually) seems too much for the wallpaper application. Or at least I'm not that much into Hello Kitty. Any thoughts? Here's the AppStore link, BTW:
